

Workshop

Scientists' Careers Inside and Outside the University

June 27-28, 2016

Science Park, University of Kassel, Germany

Organizers:

Economic Policy Research Group and INCHER-Kassel
University of Kassel

Monday, June 27, 2016

09:00	Registration
09:45	Guido Buenstorf (University of Kassel)	Welcome
10:00-11:00	John Källström (Lund University)	Mobility, research productivity and peer effects in Swedish academia
11:00-12:00	Fabiana Visentin (EPFL Lausanne)	Mobility research fellowships: A policy evaluation
12:00-13:00	Lunch break
13:00-14:00	Henry Sauermann (Georgia Institute of Technology)	STEM PhD's career preferences and postdoc plans
14:00-15:00	Grit Laudel (Technical University Berlin)	Becoming independent: The emergence of individual research programmes
15:00-16:00	Riccardo Fini (University of Bologna)	Climbing the ladder in academia: the importance of desocialization, explorative behaviours and scientific performance
16:00-16:30	Coffee break
16:30-17:30	Rasmus Bode (University of Kassel)	Trapped in the land of opportunity? Long-term effects of initial placements after German reunification
17:30-18:30	Martin Schröder (University of Marburg)	Determinants of getting a professorship in sociology and how children disadvantage women
19:30	Conference Dinner

(This version: May 06, 2016)

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry
of Education
and Research

Tuesday, June 28, 2016

08:30-09:30	Monika Jungbauer-Gans (DZHW Hannover)	Social networks and social capital in scientific careers
09:30-10:30	Fabian Hattke (University of Hamburg)	How important is the junior professorship? Self-reported success factors of academic careers in four scientific fields
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:00	Hanna Hottenrott (Technical University Munich)	Multiple Affiliations in Academia: A first look at Germany, the UK and Japan
12:00-13:00	Dominik Heinisch (University of Kassel)	Smart people come, smart people go: What spin-off entrepreneurs already know and what they take from their previous employers
13:00-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-15:00	Jeff Furman (Boston University)	Recovering from retractions: Effects of status and research strategy
15:00-16:00	Agnes Bäker (University of Zurich)	Leadership and outcomes in academia
16:00-17:00	Evangelos Bourellos (University of Göteborg)	Is it the prominent scientist who becomes an inventor? A matching of Swedish academic pairs in nanoscience to examine the effect of publishing on patenting

Additional participants are welcome to join the workshop. There is no registration fee. Interested in joining? Please send a short registration e-mail to: rbode@uni-kassel.de.

This workshop is organized as part of the project WISKIDZ ("Wissenschaftliche Karriere-dynamiken in Deutschland im Zeitablauf" funded by the Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) in the funding line FoWiN. [BMBF 16FWN001]

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry
of Education and Research